Existence

the relationship of one event to another. Controllable

by an atom an atom of cesium.

An estimate of the universe, inexplicably unreal, yet the nature of everything everything in that space

men call reality.

A black and white photograph of a leafless tree in a desolate landscape. The tree's branches are intricate and dark against a pale, overcast sky. The ground is uneven and appears to be covered in low-lying vegetation or debris. In the background, there are dark, rolling hills or mountains. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

Tidal pools spanning a million millenia quite orderly, perhaps, eventually.
Predictable by God, it allowed a result a consciousness a firm believing in existence and not knowing what existence is.
It is Relative, we know, relative to a reference frame.
It may proceed forward
But what is forward?
Procedure is believing in, believing is seeing,
seeing is procedure, perhaps it will break down like an electrical system.

Time has always been ample yet there is never enough.
Such is the key to existence,
It is to be built upon Lived Existed Cherished
but only for the moment as it crumbles into the nothingness from which it came is and will always be.

opening

A black and white photograph of a modern interior space. The room features large, rectangular windows that allow natural light to enter. In the foreground, a wooden chair with a simple, functional design is visible. The background shows more of the room, including what appears to be a desk or table and another chair, all in a minimalist style. The overall atmosphere is clean and bright.

Genesis

hypothesis:

If light and heat, and Sound of invisible forces Collide inside
 The waves of liquid gas, Created for the pleasure
 Of watching them roll and twist Within time's space,
 The end product will be worth Disrupting the continuum within Which I have moved—
 Will justify the end of that peace From which I have derived so much pleasure.

design:

Teeming with pent-up sensation,
The floating, molded molecular structure
Hummed imperceptibly,
Then sent off
One shattering crack
Of energy.

In time, it crumbled, powdered, and scattered by molecules over variations of life moving freely through the remaining mists, and some became Man.

Man from molecules—
Mind or Matter.
How much can be done with one chasmic blow into a methane sea?

man:

He brushed the strange-colored dust
From creases in his skin
And waited.
There must be something more.
His fingers played unplanned
In rich, warm, fertile soil
Soft sole cushion.

And he waited
For the last floating shadows
Of a clearing fog
So he could see What he waited for—if anything.

And then,

Thought I.

I am.

Thought I.

Thought II.

Thought III.

Progression.

Thought I + Thought III = Collision Confusion.

Thought IV.

Thought IV + I = III.

Revelation.

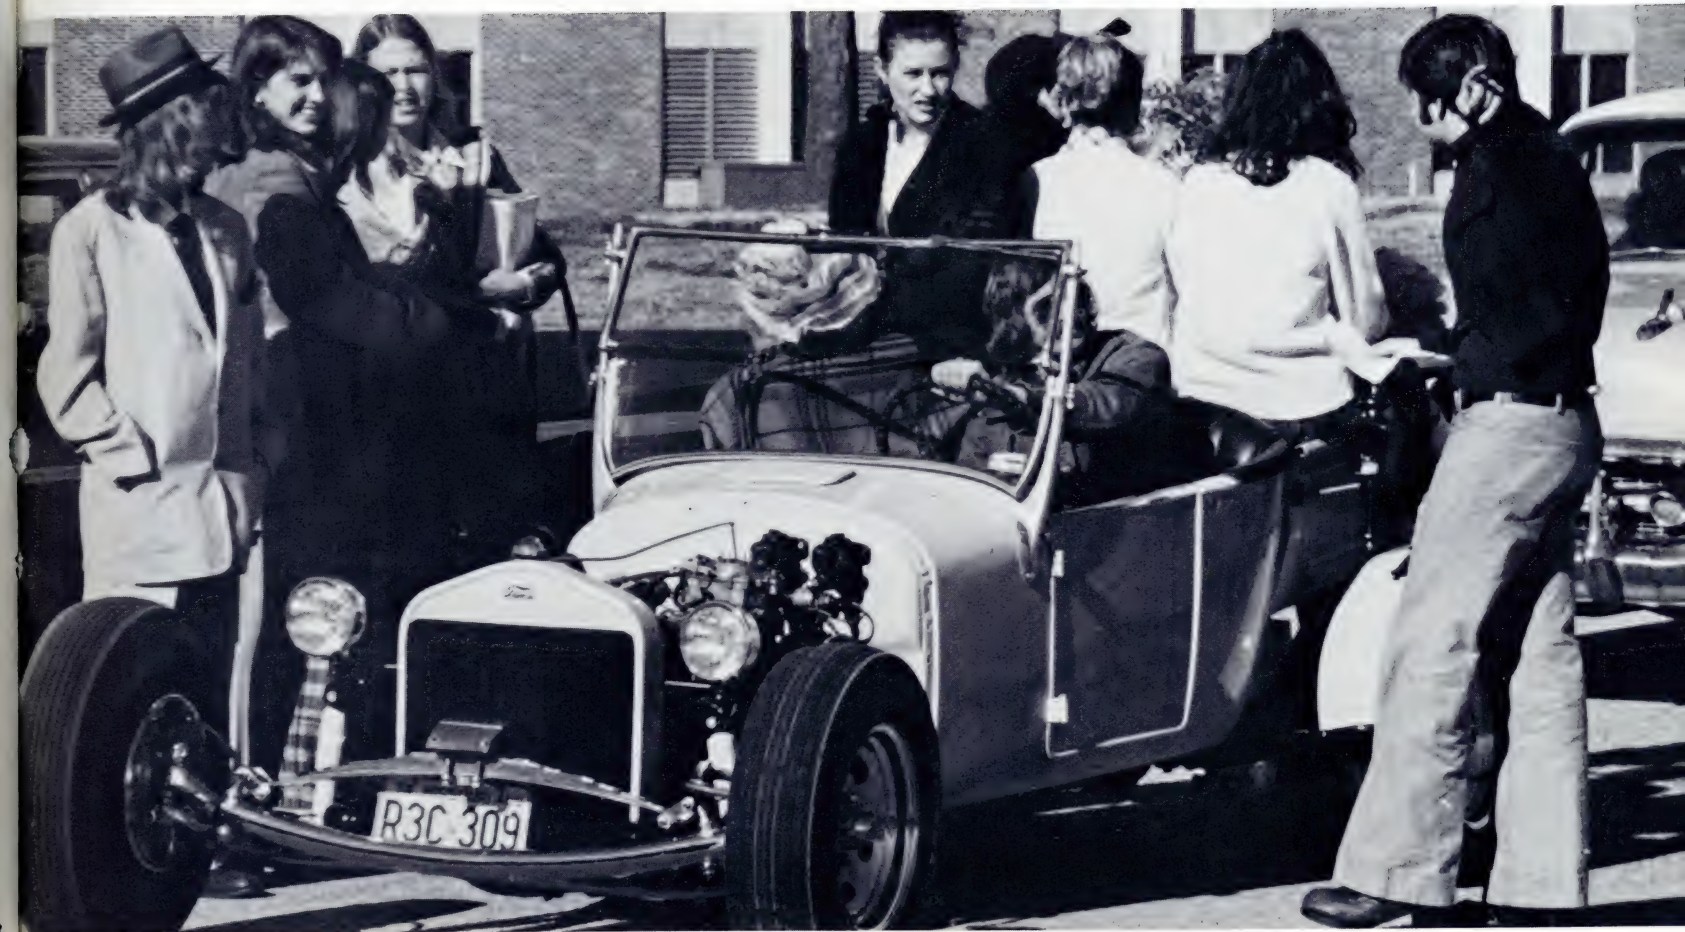

if:

If there is real,
It is,
(And I could see, touch or smell
The night, the stars that fell While I stood with others Watching—And waiting.)

(It is dark;
It often is here.
There must be more—)
And the surge of sensation
Pent-up in time before Begins to loose itself
In the air
From imperceptibly Nowhere.

I have touched it to see if it was real.
So much that is vanishes now, you Know.
Why should this new monument on a hill over a field be different?

progress:

It is different.

Creation—Desolation—

Word play.
World play.

A song—horrible truth:

The thing that is different is the power to kill butterflies, and leave them for the scavengers.

Butterfly pieces.
Rounded shells and stems—
Crackled outsides of life
Hollowed out with claws, Lying and baking
From sunheat out of the ground,
They've finally done it—
And the wings
Will never be found

The 1973 football homecoming celebration opened Monday, September 17 with campus organizations building various exhibits and floats. Each group tried to come up with a different idea on the theme, "New Directions." A noon pep rally on Friday introduced the seven queen finalists and tried to induce some sort of school spirit in the crowd. Campus decorations were judged Friday afternoon. David Bromberg, assisted by the Whiz Kids, entertained at a concert that night. Saturday dawned with dark clouds and heavy rains but by parade time, the clouds had disappeared. Visiting bands as well as queen car decorations and floats were judged during the parade. The Lion football team whipped the College of Emporia Presbies 37-0 to honor Ms. Nancy Tyler who was crowned during half time festivities. She reigned over the dance which was held following the game.

IN MEMORIAM

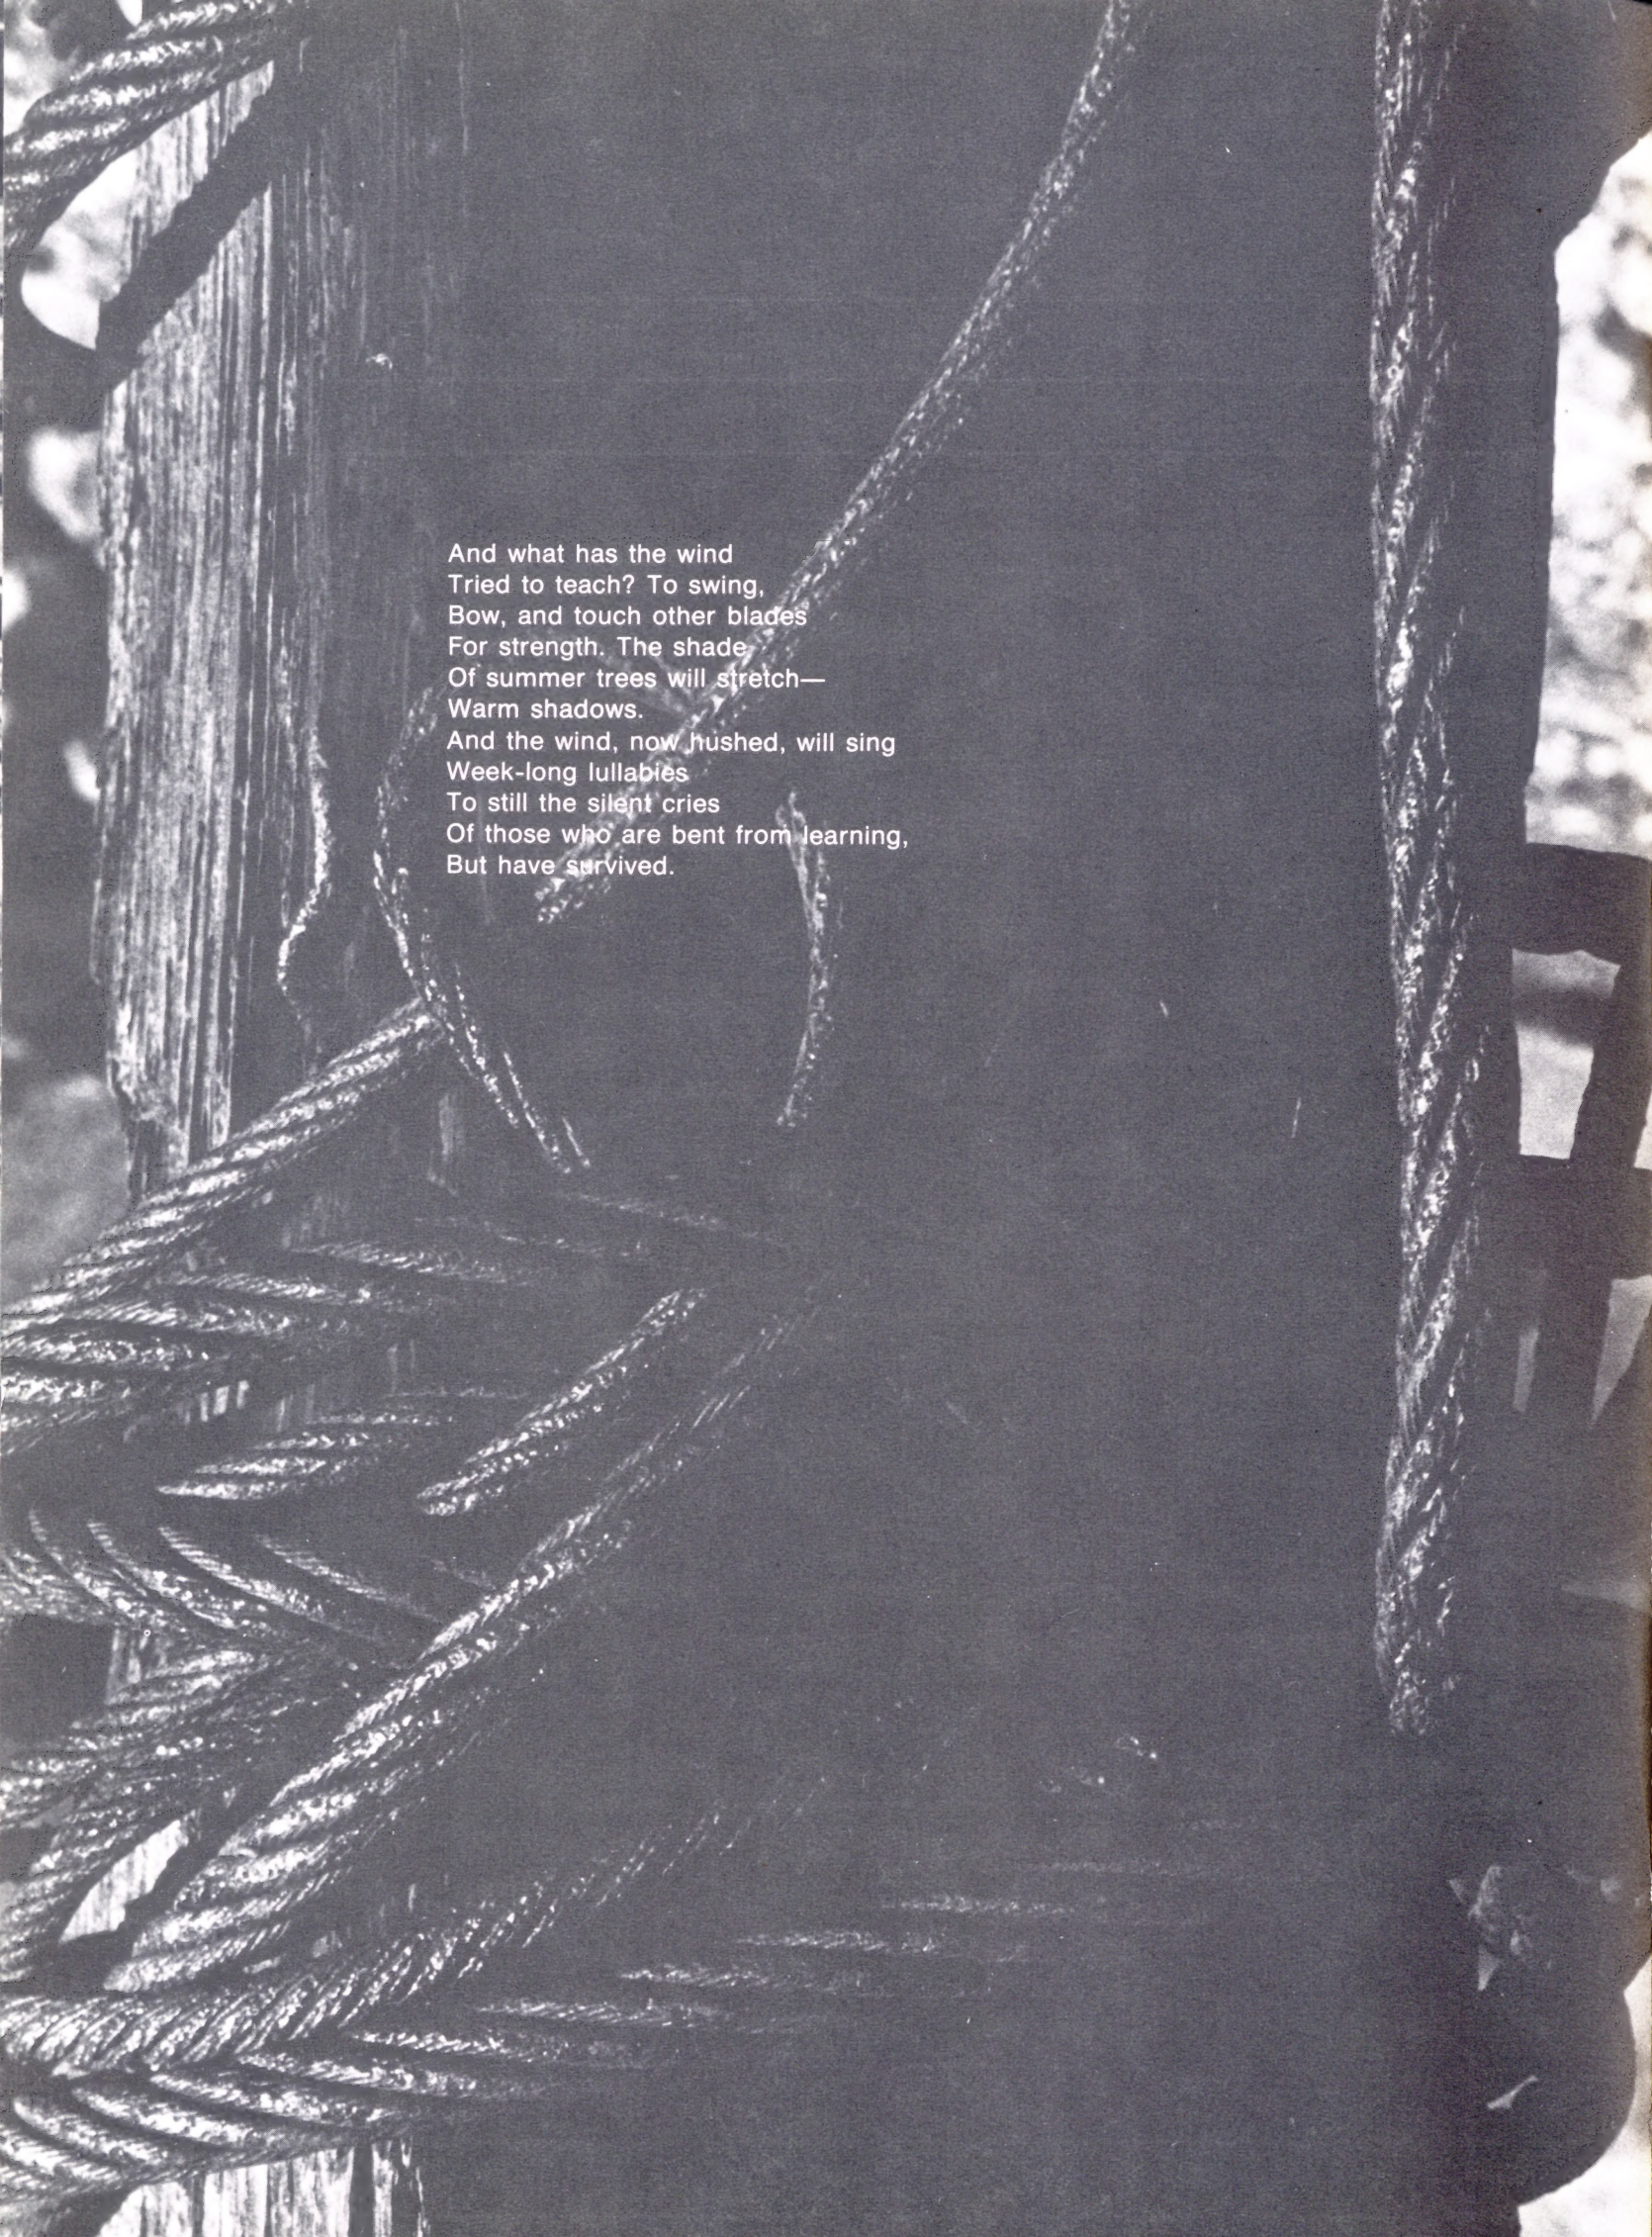

Dr. Edward S. Phinney
Dean 1967-1973
Missouri Southern State College

The wind, who tries to teach,
Has stilled. And I am bent From learning. My roots are yet In firm ground; I cannot reach to see how close I came.
I felt disaster when spun around by whips of air Felt earth begin to crumble Near my base from strain
Of being rooted where Someone sowed me.
And I have survived it.
I have kept clear
My sanity—my ability
To reason—while cellulose, Chlorophyl, and dirty shoe soles
Taunted—
That I am what I am.

And what has the wind Tried to teach? To swing, Bow, and touch other blades
For strength. The shade
Of summer trees will stretch—
Warm shadows.
And the wind, now hushed, will sing
Week-long lullabies
To still the silent cries
Of those who are bent from learning,
But have survived.
